

PRIVACY POLICY
INFORMATION ON PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING
(hereinafter referred to as the “Policy”)

1. Introductory Provisions

1. This Policy has been prepared in accordance with Act No. 110/2019 Coll., on the Processing of Personal Data, as amended, and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (General Data Protection Regulation – GDPR).
2. The purpose of this Policy is to provide Participants with basic information regarding the processing of personal data.
3. For the purposes of this Policy:
 - a) The Controller is Global Health Ministries, a.s., with its registered office at Želetavská 1525/1, 140 00 Prague 4 - Michle, Company ID No.: 282 00 870, registered in the Commercial Register maintained by the Municipal Court in Prague, Section B, Insert 12954, contact: martin.mikyska@passerinvest.cz or +420 608 264 391.
 - b) A Participant is any person who grants the Controller consent to process their personal data.
 - c) Personal Data refers in particular to the name and surname, residential address, date of birth, email address, phone number, company of employment, identification number and tax identification number of a self-employed individual, as well as other data necessary for the Controller to collect in accordance with the purpose of processing.

The Controller, as the controller of Personal Data, hereby informs Participants about the manner and scope of the processing of Personal Data, including the scope of the rights of Participants in connection with such processing.

4. The Controller operates the website asktheangel.cz. In this context and related services, Personal Data is processed::
 - a) to the extent provided in connection with the operation of the above-mentioned website and marketing activities organized by the Controller; and
 - b) for the purposes set out below.
5. The Controller is the data controller. Personal Data is not processed by any other entity unless processed by a third party based on a data processing agreement in accordance with applicable legislation. Only the Controller and any authorized processor will have access to the processed Personal Data, in compliance with applicable laws.

2. Purpose of Personal Data Processing

Purpose of Personal Data Processing:

- a) To enable non-binding and free pre-registrations for the service currently being prepared by the Controller;
- b) For marketing purposes, in order to tailor the Controller’s product and service offerings and related business communications to the needs of Participants, based on their explicit consent;
- c) To protect the Controller’s legitimate interests, including the proper and timely performance of contractual obligations between the Controller and the Participant, fulfillment of legal obligations arising from such contractual relationships, protection of the Controller’s reputation as the website operator, and safeguarding of its property interests in potential legal disputes.

3. Personal Data Protection and Processing Information

1. Participants are subject to Act No. 110/2019 Coll., on the Processing of Personal Data, as amended, and other applicable legal regulations.
2. By granting consent to the Controller, the Participant acknowledges that the processing of Personal Data will begin.
3. If the Participant does not provide their Personal Data, it is not possible to conclude a contract with the Controller and/or provide the services arising from it. The provision of such Personal Data is necessary.
4. Providing Personal Data to the Controller is generally a contractual and legal requirement. Regarding the use of Personal Data for marketing purposes, which is not a contractual or legal obligation, the Participant's consent is required. Refusing to grant consent for marketing does not affect the Controller's provision of services or willingness to enter into a contract.
5. Personal Data will be processed for a maximum of 5 years from the date of collection.
6. To comply with legal obligations related to accounting records retention under Act No. 563/1991 Coll., on Accounting, as amended, Personal Data (excluding email address and telephone number) will be stored for 5 years starting from the year following the year in which a contract was concluded between the Controller and the Participant.
7. After the periods specified above in points 3.5 and 3.6 expire, the Controller will dispose of the Personal Data.
8. The Participant is required to provide only true and accurate Personal Data.
9. The Controller will make every effort to prevent unauthorized processing of Personal Data.
10. Personal Data is and will be processed in electronic form in a non-automated manner.
11. The Participant acknowledges that their Personal Data is stored in secured data centers compliant with applicable legislation and in accordance with European data protection standards.
12. The Participant acknowledges that cookies may be stored on their device by the Controller.

4. Participant Rights Related to Data Processing

1. The Participant has the right to withdraw their consent to the processing of Personal Data (where processing is based on consent) at any time. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the legality of processing based on consent given before the withdrawal. It also does not affect processing based on other legal grounds (e.g., contract performance, legal obligations, etc.). Consent may be withdrawn via form, checkbox, email, or using the link provided in email communication.
2. The Participant also has the right to:
 - a) Be informed about the processing of their Personal Data
 - (i) The Participant may request confirmation whether Personal Data is being processed. If so, the Participant is entitled to obtain details including the identity and contact information of the Controller (and its representative or data protection officer, if applicable), processing purposes, categories of Personal Data, recipients or categories of recipients, the Controller's legitimate interests, a list of Participant's rights, possibility to contact the supervisory authority, data sources, and any automated decision-making including profiling.
 - (ii) If the Controller intends to process the Personal Data for purposes other than originally collected, the Participant will be informed in advance.
 - b) Request access to their Personal Data:

The Participant may request confirmation of processing and access to information on purposes, data categories, recipients, storage periods, rights (rectification, erasure, restriction, objection), right to complain to the supervisory authority, source of data, whether automated processing or profiling takes place, and safeguards for data transfers. The Participant is entitled to receive a copy of the Personal Data processed. This right must not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.
 - c) Rectification of Personal Data:

If any Personal Data (such as address, phone number) changes, the Participant may request its correction or completion

d) Erasure of Personal Data

In specific situations, the Participant may request deletion of their Personal Data (e.g., if it is no longer needed for the stated purpose). While the Controller deletes data automatically after retention periods, the Participant may request erasure at any time. The request will be individually assessed—deletion may be denied where legal obligations or legitimate interests require continued processing.

e) Restriction of Processing

If the Participant believes the Controller is processing Personal Data beyond the stated purposes, they may request limitation to essential legal reasons or blocking of the data. The request will be individually assessed.

f) Issue a complaint with the supervisory authority:

The Participant may contact the Czech Office for Personal Data Protection at Pplk. Sochora 27, 170 00 Prague 7, or via www.uoou.cz.

3. If the Participant believes that the processing of their Personal Data violates his privacy or applicable legal regulations, they may:
 - a) Request clarification from the Controller by email or phone;
 - b) Object to the processing via email and request rectification (blocking, correction, supplementation, deletion). The Controller will respond without delay. If the objection is rejected, the Participant may contact the supervisory authority.
4. Participants may exercise their rights in writing at the Controller's registered office or via email.
5. The Controller is obliged to respond to such requests without undue delay, and no later than one month after receiving the request.
6. If the Participant requests access in electronic form, the information will also be provided electronically unless otherwise requested.
7. The Controller may charge a reasonable administrative fee for repeated or unfounded requests for physical copies of Personal Data.
8. Personal Data is subject to automated evaluation and may be used for profiling or automated decision-making for marketing purposes.
9. As a result, the Participant's behavior on the website will be monitored and evaluated, which may partially affect privacy but also enables the Controller to provide relevant marketing offers.

5. Final Provisions

1. All legal relationships arising in connection with the processing of Personal Data are governed by the laws of the Czech Republic, regardless of the place of access. Any disputes related to privacy protection between the Participant and the Controller shall be resolved by Czech courts.
2. Participants who provide their Personal Data via the registration form to enter into a contract with the Controller or grant consent to Personal Data processing do so voluntarily, on their own behalf, and without instruction from the Controller.

3. The Controller may amend or supplement this Policy. Participants will be informed of such changes by email at least 30 days before the effective date.
4. This version of the Policy is effective as of 1 January 2024.
